Caring and Sharing Game

Each Joey Scout draws a simple picture where they are assisting another person. They should share with the Mob a brief story about their picture mentioning:

- What is happening
- How do you think the person/s is feeling
- What would you do if you were the person in the picture
- Who would you share this with
- How does this action fit with our Joey Scout Mob Code
- Find out from other Joey Scouts, how they would help others

Non Stop Story

Equipment: Nil

Method:

Have all the Joey Scouts and Leaders sitting in a circle . Someone starts a story either a Joey Scout or Leader/Helper on what they think of caring and sharing with others. The next in the circle adds on to the story e.g: I like caring and sharing with my friend Peter when he comes over to my place....or I like being around my brother/sister because it makes me feel good and _____

Making a Caring for Others Mural

Equipment: paper, magazines, glue, scissors, pens and pencils

Method:

The joey scouts search magazines for a picture of people helping and caring for others. Cut these out carefully and glue these to a chart which makes the mural. When the small group's task is nearing completion discuss whether there were any difficulties in sharing materials and whether everyone was able to contribute.

SONG: Let's be cheerful

Tune: Frere Jacques

Let's be cheerful
Let's be cheerful
Where's that smile?
Where's that smile?
You must keep on Caring
You must keep on Sharing
