Explanation of Activities and Bases:

Activities:

Keep the Balloon Up

Joey Scouts stand around in a group; they need to hit a ball up in the air for as long as possible. Count how many hits they can get. An idea is to do this over a number of weeks and see if they can improve.

Chinese Whispers

Have the Joey Scouts sit in either a circle or a line. Tell the first one a message, they then need to pass this on by whispering the message to the next Joey in line. See if the message gets to the end or how badly it is changed.

Simon Says

Joey Scouts spread out so that all can see the Leader. The Leader says "Simon Say.... (with an action)" Joey Scouts need to do the action. If the Leader says to do something without the "Simon Says..." and a Joey does it they are out.

Stuck in the Air

A Joey Scout (or two) is chosen to be 'it', they are given a ball and have to throw it at the legs of the other Joey Scouts, if a Joey Scout is hit then they are stuck in the Mud. They stand still with their legs apart, they can be unstuck if another Joey crawls through their legs.
